Hi John,

Kate and I were just talking and I wanted to update you regarding the DOL investigator, she made a visit on Thursday and she will be sending all her findings to her supervisor. She isn't sure of the time frame but it seems like they moved on this quickly so I am sure we will hear something soon. I know that Isabella isn't going in anymore but it might be a good idea to have her go in once a week while people are using the room and I know she gets in early so maybe she could clean on a certain day once a week. Thanks again!
